The place where emotions come alive

Is it possible to design a ship that symbolises Italian hospitality, Italian style and Italian beauty?

This project to encapsulate “Italy’s finest” is the result of the professional sensibility, the training, and the experiences from time spent studying in Italy of Adam D. Tihany, the world-famous designer.

A team consisting of the very best architects and designers worked on the concepts of: pride, attitude, good taste, time and style. These five founding pillars gave shape to the creative concept and were joined by another concept, an Italy where reality and fantasy live side by side in the same country.

Tihany then selected a group of prestigious international and Italian architects to develop the idea. They included Partner Ship Design from Hamburg, Dordoni Architetti from Milan and Rockwell and Jeffrey Beers from New York Each one developed the basic concept, adapting it to a specific part of the ship, in accordance with their skills, their experience and their own sensibilities. Then some of the most prestigious Italian brands in the field of interior décor became involved, to offer the team the very best Italian-made items. This is how Costa Smeralda was created: the result of the challenge to tell the story of Italian beauty on a cruise ship.

The secret was to start with Italy’s most typical settings, from the architectural places that embody and reflect the Italian lifestyle, where people go people watching, drink aperitifs, have a chat, eat mouthwatering snacks, spend some time shopping, but above all spend fun times together, and, all this can only happen in the most traditional of Italian places: the piazza.

Responsible innovation

An ambassador for responsible innovation, Costa Smeralda is the embodiment of Costa's new journey towards the future and its desire to combine the pleasure of a holiday with sustainable development.

Designed for efficiency and to minimise its environmental impact, Costa Smeralda is the first of two ships in the fleet to be powered by liquefied natural gas (LNG) the "cleanest" fossil fuel in the world. The design of the ship itself is based on respect for the consumption of resources. Reducing consumption at source and putting guests at the heart, giving them a leading role in increasingly virtuous behaviour that is respectful of natural resources, are what makes Costa Smeralda a truly special ship to be experienced together.

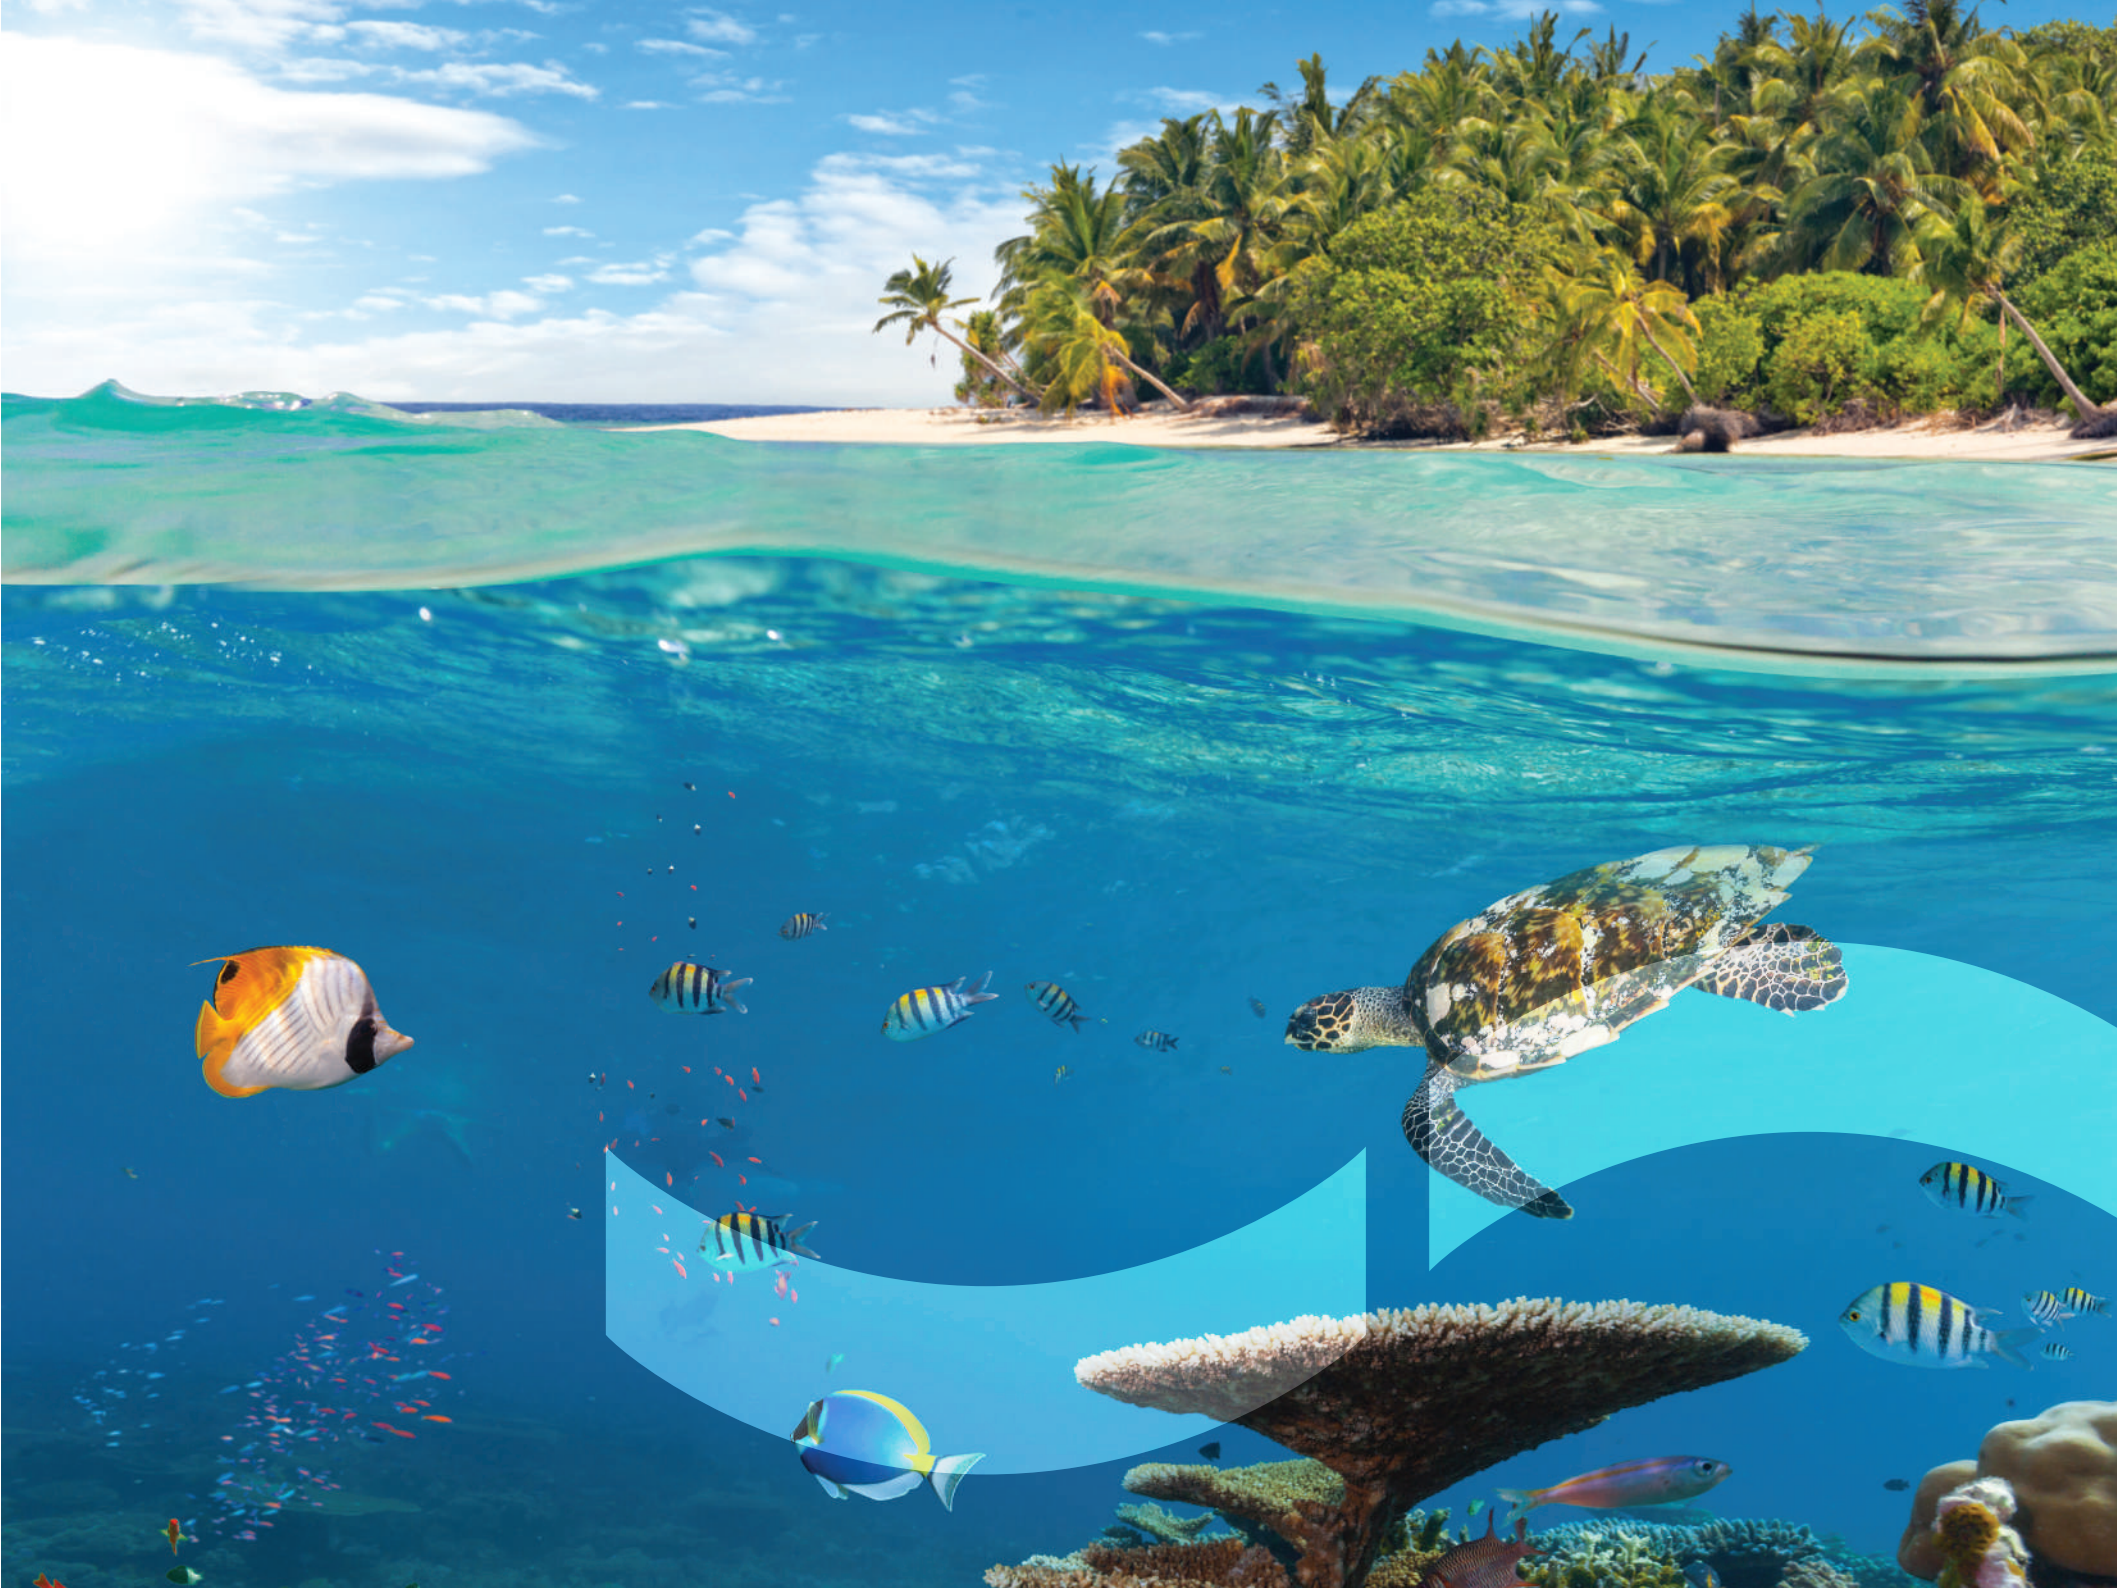

Stepping on board Costa's new home will be like stepping into the future, with all the interiors designed to make the travel experience a shared and responsible one, which is precisely what makes it unforgettable.

“ On Costa Smeralda guests will feel welcomed in a “home” where respect for our planet is a fundamental value and where they will play a leading role in sustainability, so that we can make a difference together! ”

Touch

The sheet caresses us like a tender memory.

It is the cabins that best reflect Italian style and the concept of beauty.

The kind of beauty and style that people abroad love us for and that are the inspiration behind the Best of Italy concept, created by skilled artisans who use the very best materials both for the furnishings and for the lighting. You'll find Molteni furnishings, Dedar and Rubelli wallpapers and fabrics, and Flos Bespoke lighting, and you can sleep on a comfortable Dorelan mattress.

Each floor is inspired by a particular place. Palermo, Capri, Rome, Venice, Florence, Bellagio: a Grand Tour through Italy's most famous and celebrated wonders.

“ The cabins are different in size and position so that every time you can find the room that best suits your holiday requirements. Some also have a sea view terrace for the ultimate comfort. ”

The different artistic styles, the cultural influences and the expression of different moments in history that form part of the character of Italian cities come together to create a unique, elegant and timeless environment. So every cabin becomes “a city in a room”. And everything pampers us, taking us back to memories of when we were small and the world of fantasy meets reality.

Taste

Sitting at a table and waiting for the magic to start.

There's nothing like food to reflect the complexity of a country's people. Here on board Costa Smeralda, we have care for food as only Italians do, which is how we guarantee quality and flavour. Every day our chefs prepare breakfast, lunch and dinner, as well as a whole host of snacks, making your holiday a thrilling experience for your tastebuds too. Handmade chocolate by Gobino and Bisetto pastries by the world champion are just some of the sweet titbits in store for you on board.

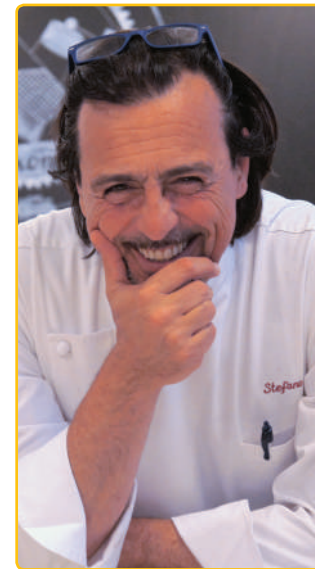

There are scenic sea view restaurants and dynamic and lively bistro-style settings, where you can sample our culinary delights, perhaps some spaghetti from Barilla, the symbol of Italian pasta around the world. And through our partnership with the University of Gastronomic Sciences of Pollenzo, you'll soon see how skilled we are in making every guest from every part of the world happy and in offering dishes that are the culinary complement to the places you visit, because you learn more about a country when you have the chance to appreciate its cuisine.

Your tastebuds will thank you when you call in at one of the 16 areas given over to food.

Smell

Aromatic aperitifs, an Italian ritual.

There are 19 bars on board to choose from, each one with its own panorama and each one potentially containing your new favourite barman. Sitting on the stairway that slopes down towards the wake of the stern or into the heart of the ship; outdoors in a jacuzzi, or in evening dress before dinner: there really are a thousand ways to enjoy a drink in one of the bars on board. Perhaps you'd like to try one of the theme bars: Campari, Aperol, Ferrari and Illy, for example, all serving Italy's finest drinks, from aperitifs to coffee. Or perhaps a superb glass of wine from the Fontanafredda and San Marzano wineries, or an ice cream in the Amarillo ice cream parlour, where Agrimontana is a sure sign of 100% natural quality.

Lingering in the air are the aromas of gin, citrus fruits, spices and sugars mixed with the fresh salty breeze. What could be better than letting life surprise you once more, with an aperitif at sunset, for example?

Hearing

Every kind of fun has a sound.

Pure entertainment flows through the most interesting areas on board. Trastevere, the piazza of fun, with street artists and musical surprises.

The Sanremo theatre, with special events for the various nationalities on board, theme evenings for teenagers too with competitions, modern dos and grand evening events, when it turns into the very elegant on-board disco.

Finally the Colosseum, the heart and soul of the ship's high-tech innovations, with acrobatic shows three-decks-high, and plenty of interactive evenings of music led by the master of ceremonies, an important new part of the team on board.

The soundtrack of your holiday

Guests can also get involved in the rehearsal and backstage procedures at the Colosseum with the help of the “master of ceremonies”, always raring to get people to take part at all times, and, in the Sanremo area, with dedicated daily activities where guests come into close contact with all the equipment, the artistes and the technicians on board, being a part of the backstage show, but always in a starring role.

The Voice of the Sea keeps you singing with good music, and anyone who wants to rise to the challenge can take to the stage and sing their heart out to become the best.

Actors, dancers, acrobats and singers all showing you their skills and offering you their own personal take on life. Sometimes poetic, sometimes romantic and sometimes surprising, in the same way that our fun yet discreet entertainment staff will get you involved, or like the music that accompanies every moment of your day on board, like a magic carpet.

“ The experience of fun on board is all around you, revitalising and re-energising you in new interactive spaces, where everyone has the chance to express themselves in the perfect setting at all times. ”

GUEST EXPERIENCE

Always involved in the best show of all:

Technology meets art - a grand combination designed to amaze with high-tech digital solutions: virtual bands, LED screens and lights that interact with the music and the settings, as well as high-level artistes in spectacular acrobatic shows and a trilogy of musical storytelling and dance dedicated to Smeralda.

And technology is everywhere, even in the messages you receive on board, to help you get around, or to provide you with information and invite you to the ship's unmissable events.

Visiting the CoDe "Costa Design Museum", the first real museum on board a cruise ship housing a selection of the most representative "Made in Italy" items and showcasing the country's excellence, is another a way of entertaining you, with the beauty of Italian style.

There's the sound of a bouncing tennis ball and the sound of a football hitting the back of the net, or the sound you make on the treadmill - Technogym, of course - like all the equipment that helps you work out. You can also discover the gentle sound of water in the Wellness centre spa, where your own body resounds with the pleasure of the treatments that are pampering it. And the imperceptibly mellow sound of the smile of someone receiving a gift purchased in one of the shopping area boutiques. Technology and the digital world make an appearance at the photo gallery, helping you choose which of your best shots to purchase. What about the spinning roulette ball and the lucky rolling of the colourful slot machine reels? They are all sounds that brighten your day on board and that let you know that their music means you're having fun.

A focus on the family.

Family holiday fun at sea is guaranteed because there's something to delight everyone here.

You can book some time for the youngest ones at the nursery, and older kids can have fun playing in no-holds-barred tournaments, with the help of PlayStation.

There's plenty of opportunity to make lots of new friends in a relaxed setting and enjoy whichever cuisine you prefer, and on Costa Smeralda there's a whole restaurant for families, with special kids' menus.
