

VENICE MARGHERA: Check-in, Luggage drop off & Tips

Cruises from/to Venice Marghera.

All Costa ships no longer dock directly in Venice, but in Marghera, a little further out.

In this document you will find all the information and details for arrival by car, individually booked flights or flights booked through Costa:

All embarkation formalities such as check-in and baggage drop-off take place in Venice, not in Marghera! It is not possible to enter the port area of Marghera independently.

IMPORTANT: Guests receive a specified embarkation time with their cruise ticket, which must be observed. Embarkation is allowed until 2:30 p.m. – the transfer from the terminal in Venice to the port in Marghera takes about 20 – 30 minutes! Guests are responsible for arriving on time for the transfer!

If guests wish to visit Venice on their own prior embarkation:

- Baggage drop-off possible from 8:30 a.m. – baggage tags must be attached to the suitcase!

Advise: "People mover" runs from the terminals to Piazzale Roma, the end of the Canal Grande (approx. €1.50 per person). From here your guests can easily walk to St. Mark's Square or take the vaporetto to almost all sights in Venice!

The People Mover is an automated shuttle train, consisting of 4 cabins, which connects the port with the Tronchetto parking and Piazzale Roma, in the North of Venice. It runs every 7 minutes between the two terminal blocks.

The distance is around 800 meters.

Arrival with independently arranged flights

If you arrive in Venice (VCE) by plane, you can use a Costa transfer, which can be booked in advance (more details in the last page).

Cruises from/to Venice Marghera.

Disembarkation

- Disembarkation starts approximately 1 hour after the ship's arrival and ends around 1:00 p.m
- The transfer to the Stazione Marittima (by bus or boat) takes about 20-30 minutes
- It is possible to leave luggage there for a fee if guests wish to stay longer in Venice.
- For shared transfers booked through us, disembarkation will be adjusted to the transfer departure time of 11:30 am.

No transfer booked through Costa?

Please note that guests must plan their flights to reach the airport taking note of the fact that they may disembark around 1:00 PM. As guests are divided into groups for disembarkation on board, it is possible that guests will disembark later.
