Day 2 - Friday MOTRIL	The rich artistic heritage of the city's historic centre is the result of traditional Hispano-Arab town planning. The Encarnación Church, built over a former mosque, the baroque town hall, and the Virgen de la Cabeza Sanctuary — constructed on the site of King Boabdil's mother's residence — make this capital of the Costa Tropical a fascinating stopover full of discoveries. Ship docked, no water sports.
Day 3 - Saturday CARTHAGENA	Brightly coloured Andalusian houses enliven Cartagena, an arid former mining city with a special Mediterranean charm. Many cultures have made Cartagena home over the centuries, leaving behind a rich artistic history that is still visible today. Ship docked, no water sports and no direct access to a beach.

Day 5 - Monday TARRAGONA	The town's many ancient ruins bear witness to the historic past of this former Roman colony. Its 2nd-century amphitheatre faces the sea, and the ramparts surrounding the remains of the medieval town offer uninterrupted views of Tarragona. Boat docked, no water sports.
Day 6 - Tuesday COLLIOURE	Lapped by the waters of the Mediterranean, at the foot of the Pyrenees, Collioure has inspired painters such as Matisse and Chagall. Its narrow cobbled streets wind between two harbours, where brightly painted Catalan rowing boats bob on the waves. Ship at anchor, water sports available.
