Excursions

THE LOST CITIES OF Myra AND Kekova

Sail past the sunken city of Simena and admire the unique sight of the abandoned fortress. Discover the famous Lycean necropolis and swim in the crystal clear waters of Kekova Bay. After lunch, visit the Church of St Nicholas, where the original Father Christmas welcomed pilgrims and visitors in Roman times. End the day at Myra, with its huge Greco-Roman theatre surrounded by Lycian tombs with rock paintings dating from the 5th century BC.

CRUISE AND PHASELIS

Relax as you sail along the turquoise coast in the shade of the sails of a traditional wooden caïque. When Phaselis comes into sight, the boat will drop anchor in the middle of three small bays. After visiting the Roman and Byzantine ruins dotted around this idyllic site, it's back onto the boat for a picnic of Turkish specialities and a swim in a creek to round off the day.

AUTHENTIC ANTHALYA

This flourishing city is renowned for its dazzling beauty and history. As he takes you round the historic city centre, your guide will point out the most notable Ottoman houses and Roman ruins. You'll have free time to wander in the shade of the ramparts and labyrinth of narrow streets leading to the old port, where you'll find plenty of choice for your souvenir shopping.
